Why romanticize a relationship between a man who has hatred in his heart and a woman who by default is a part of the very thing he hates. I am all about interracial relationships playing out in literature. I would love to see it become more common in romance. Particularly interracial romances that involve a black heroine. Which is EXCEEDINGLY rare.

I very much enjoyed this book; have read it several times. This copy was ordered because of wanting a hardback copy. It is the last, and best, of a sequence of books by Ms. Corelli as follows: A Romance of Two Worlds (1886), Ardath (1889), The Soul of Lith (1892), Barabbas (1893), The Sorrows of Satan (1895), The Master Christian (1900), and The Life Everlasting (1911).
