Tsuru no Ongaeshi - Japanese Folktale. Tsuru no Ongaeshi (The Grateful Crane/The Crane's Return of Favor) is one of the most popular Japanese folktales. My parents used to tell this folktale many time in my childhood. It is an interesting story in Japanese folklore and the best unexpected twist ending folktale you would ever read in your life.

Tsuru no Ongaeshi - Japanese Folktale | Kyuhoshi

It was all very mysterious, and he was itching to know the truth. One night, while his wife was making fabric, he unlocked her door and peeked inside. He was very shocked with what he saw. Sitting in front of the loom was a winged creature, half woman, half crane. It was his wife. She was painfully plucking her own feathers and turning them into fabric.
