UN General Assembly Resolution 3379 -1975 "Zionism Is Racism"

Speaking 40 years ago on the day UN Resolution 3379 was adopted, Israel's ambassador to the UN Chaim Herzog-- who had himself, as his son has shared with us, helped liberate Jews in concentration camps -- recognized the horrific symmetry between these two events. In both instances, actions that should have been a source of shame -- whether the horrific violence against Jews in 1938, or the 1975 smearing of Jews' aspirations to have a homeland -- became for certain people a perverse source of ...
